On behalf of the Daily Bulletin team – Song Zhao, Brian Senior, Jasper Hau, and photographer Edward Cheung, may I welcome you all to the Hong Kong Inter-city Bridge Championships 2016. We have only two journalists and there will be 60 tables in play at any given time, so it will be a miracle if we are at the right table at the right time to see all your brilliancies, your partner's idiocies, or any funny stories. So, please, if you have a good story, find one of us in the playing room or, failing that, come down to the main office on Floor B2, where the Bulletin is also housed, and tell us about it. This bulletin will be only as good as YOU make it.

Message

We are to host once again and proudly the Hong Kong Intercity Bridge Championships under the aegis of our Hong Kong Contract Bridge Association and will take place at the Regal Hong Kong Hotel. The tournament will be the precursor to the 15th World Bridge series that will decide the rankings of the best in the game.

The sport has grown into one of our favorites. We have been producing some exceptional bridge players through the years, culminating in the accolades we have earned from the games' aficionados and masters, which is no mean feat. Not content to be the home to high caliber players, we aspire also to be their event center and raise our international profile as a result. These championships reaffirm this.

As for myself, I am privileged to have overseen through the last two decades, since my ascension to head the local Olympic Committee, a widening scope for sports whose definition is very broad now and whose ranks are inclusive. Bridge has been one of our success stories in this regard and is one I am keen to promote because this is the means to draw even more talents into participation and let them excel.

We can be sure that the momentum will continue to build for bridge in Hong Kong as the game requires deployment of strategy and use of smarts at a high level – facets which are central to our way of life that relies upon using our wits and going forward with the spirit of team work. I wish everyone the best and am gratified that among the best are our own.

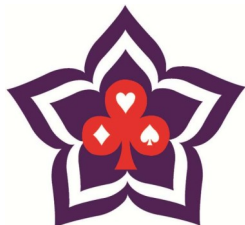

Timothy Fok
